

SBN

Society for Behavioral Neuroendocrinology

Join us for our 23rd annual meeting June 19-22, 2019 Indiana University Bloomington training/mentoring opportunities • lectures and symposia • poster sessions

The meeting:

The conference will be held on campus in the Indiana Memorial Union, with poster sessions in the IMU Solarium. The IU Auditorium and adjacent Showalter Fountain will provide a convivial atmosphere for the conference reception. Find the meeting program on the back of this flyer.

Travel:

Indiana University Bloomington is approximately 45 minutes south of the Indianapolis International Airport. Shuttle service is available.

Where to stay:

Reserve a room at the Indiana Memorial Union Biddle Hotel or at IU's Willkie Residence Center. A variety of other lodging facilities can be found within walking distance of the IU campus.

Food and drink:

This small—yet international—college town supports a wide range of food and drink establishments and features 5 brewpubs, 2 wineries, a microdistillery, and several local coffee houses.
